Grigori Grabovoi
2018-12-09 Here, Dr. Grigori GRABOVOI's position on the Soul formulates the technology of the work of the Soul, doing a most wondrous job of transformation by providing actionable knowledge in ways that encourage control and instant action. Implementing this knowledge attentively, its complex simplicity as if ignites a very insightful process and experience, while also making absolute sense in terms of its axiomatic principles, their application and of course, the results. If you are interested to take a next serious step towards your spiritual development and growth, perhaps this exceptional book with its theory and practical ways of thinking will be a key to your current process for further progress in your personal management and in global salvation. Considering Dr. GRABOVOI's axiom that, the Soul of man is built according to the same laws as the physical body of The One God, one can see that the Soul is already eternal because It is built according to the same laws. Did you know that your Soul is always in action, never sleeps, and that It always starts working immediately at whatever stage of a situation when asked by your Consciousness? Do you wish to know more about the properties and qualities, the special characteristics of your own Soul? For example from

for the Soul, the control is always action - to improve and to normalize (i.e. make to the norm of the Creator) as It was created with these qualities. The norm is how God makes the norm, how the plants and animals grow, how the World is transformed, how the person breathes in general - this is the technology of human healing. One can restore oneself by thinking since it is the Soul that creates thought. Therefore, it is sufficient to develop one's Consciousness to the level one is really indestructible, to the level of realization of reality towards the norm, towards the physical body of the One God for self-realization and its translation to the rest of the World. God does for all at once; so you do for all and for yourself. So, you can use your Soul to help yourself. Upon reading and studying this book you can find out ways of thinking that can inspire you, for example: - to learn to control through your understanding and through your logic - to start to understand life with your Soul and to act at the Soulic level of your perception - to make the decision that you want to be healthy and are healthy - to reach the state of complete internal tranquillity by the presence of your Soul - to feel your health and be healthy regardless of anything and everything - to activate your spiritual physical body - to reach the spiritual state where your body is absolutely healthy - to see God in your physical body and to be in the Light of the physical body of God - to use your Soul as

The World Teacher

Disclosed MS Yelena Loginova 2014-05-04 This book is based on my research, which is essentially a large gathering of evidence, ranging from prophecies (both ancient and new), recent declarations from high-level people around the world, as well as some statements in the words of the World Teacher himself and my own personal experiences, tending to prove that the Second Coming of Christ in visible form has occurred, that he was born in a conventional, natural and easy way. All elements in this book follow a logical sequence, coming together to form a perfect puzzle, and each aspect can be further broadened and deepened almost to infinity. I therefore set some limits to the scope of this present work, but did my best for it still to be utterly fascinating and to stir awakening in your mind and heart. Of course, if you do not agree with me, I can understand your doubts. However, it should be noted that no one has yet managed to move my ideas from the position where I stand firmly and joyously, but do not think for a minute that my conclusions are based in fanaticism, far from it, actually. I'm at my core a genuinely free individual, of a very inquisitive nature. I try to look at the world in its totality and to move toward the goal which is Eternal and Harmonious Development for all.

Therefore, when we consider a similar system in the external world, we can quite simply evaluate and apply the methods of development of evolution, which are in the fact that the future information is considered firstly, as universal information, and as a consequence of this principle, is considered as private information in a particular place.
